

REGULUS

"Permit me to introduce myself — I think that's the way you say it. Anyway my name name is Christopher Robin, and this is my dearest friend Winnie-the-Pooh. Winnie's a Bear of Little Brain. But he writes poetry. And we're running the show this year."

"But Christopher Robin!"

"Hush, Pooh, we have to introduce our other friends:

Piglet

Rabbit

Wol

Kanga and Roo

Tigger

"But, Pooh" whispered Piglet politely, "you forgot one."

"Oh, bother. I forgot about Eeyore."

"Oh well, what does it matter? People are always forgetting about me. I should just go drown myself in the creek, and then it wouldn't matter if people forgot me or not."

"Oh, nonsense, Eeyore. People do not forget about you. We were just so busy remembering about ourselves."

"Well, anyway, this is our dear friend Eeyore. He's a donkey."

" 'Dear friend' — Humph!"

"Hush, Eeyore, we have to get on."

1966

"But Christopher Robin?"

"What is it, Pooh?"

"We have to get on with what?"

"I know! We're all going on a second Expotition to the North Pole!" cried Rabbit.

"Hurray, hurray!" chorused all his Friends-and-Relations.

"No, let's go trap another Heffalump instead," squeaked Piglet joyfully.

"Why don't we all go hunt the Woozle?" growled Tigger. "We'll have better luck in the summer."

"No, no. That was all in other books. Now we have to explain just what we're doing in this book."

"Can't we ever go Heffalump trapping again?"

"Or Woozle hunting?"

"Or even Expotitioning?"

"Of course we can. But never again for our Dear Readers."

"Poor Dear Readers."

"'Poor' — Humph!"

"But isn't there something else, Christopher Robin?"

"Yes, Pooh, but I can't think what."

"Well neither can I."

"Oh, do try Pooh. Please try your hardest. Just . . ."

"I've got it! We represent something!"

"We do???"

"Of course. Now don't interrupt me. We are your memories, Dear Reader. And this book is of your memories."

"Oh, Pooh, that's just right. I always knew you were a poet."

Houses

There are many advantages to a large school. Its size provides for a large variety of classes, greater facilities, the opportunity to hold special classes according to the students' abilities, and the opportunity to initiate special and experimental programs. But the educational advantages of a large school can be outweighed by its effect on a student, for the over-large school can easily become an impersonal institution with which the student develops no close ties and to which he feels no loyalty. Recognizing this problem, faculty members of Newton High School went to work in 1959 to create a new system: the House Plan. Ideally, this plan was to combine the advantages of the large school with the benefits of personal contact among students, teachers, counselors, and administrators.

Under the new plan Newton High School was divided into six houses, each with its own housemaster, secretary, house-aide, guidance counselors, and students. For the three years that he is in the high school, each student is a member of a particular house. During these three years, he is given ample opportunity to make both formal and informal contact with the administrative personnel and faculty of his house.

Newton South High School was designed, in 1960, according to the concept of the House Plan. Under the direction of our three housemasters, Mr. Harold Hawkes, Mr. Clifford Card, and Miss Gertrude Creedon, our Houses, Cutler, Goodwin, and Wheeler have become the central units of our school lives. It is to the house office and house counselors we turn with our immediate administrative and personal problems.

Each House has its own student government, its independent activities and social events, and its own intramural sports teams. And because of this unique combination of members, each has come to gain an individual personality.

Knight-in-Armour

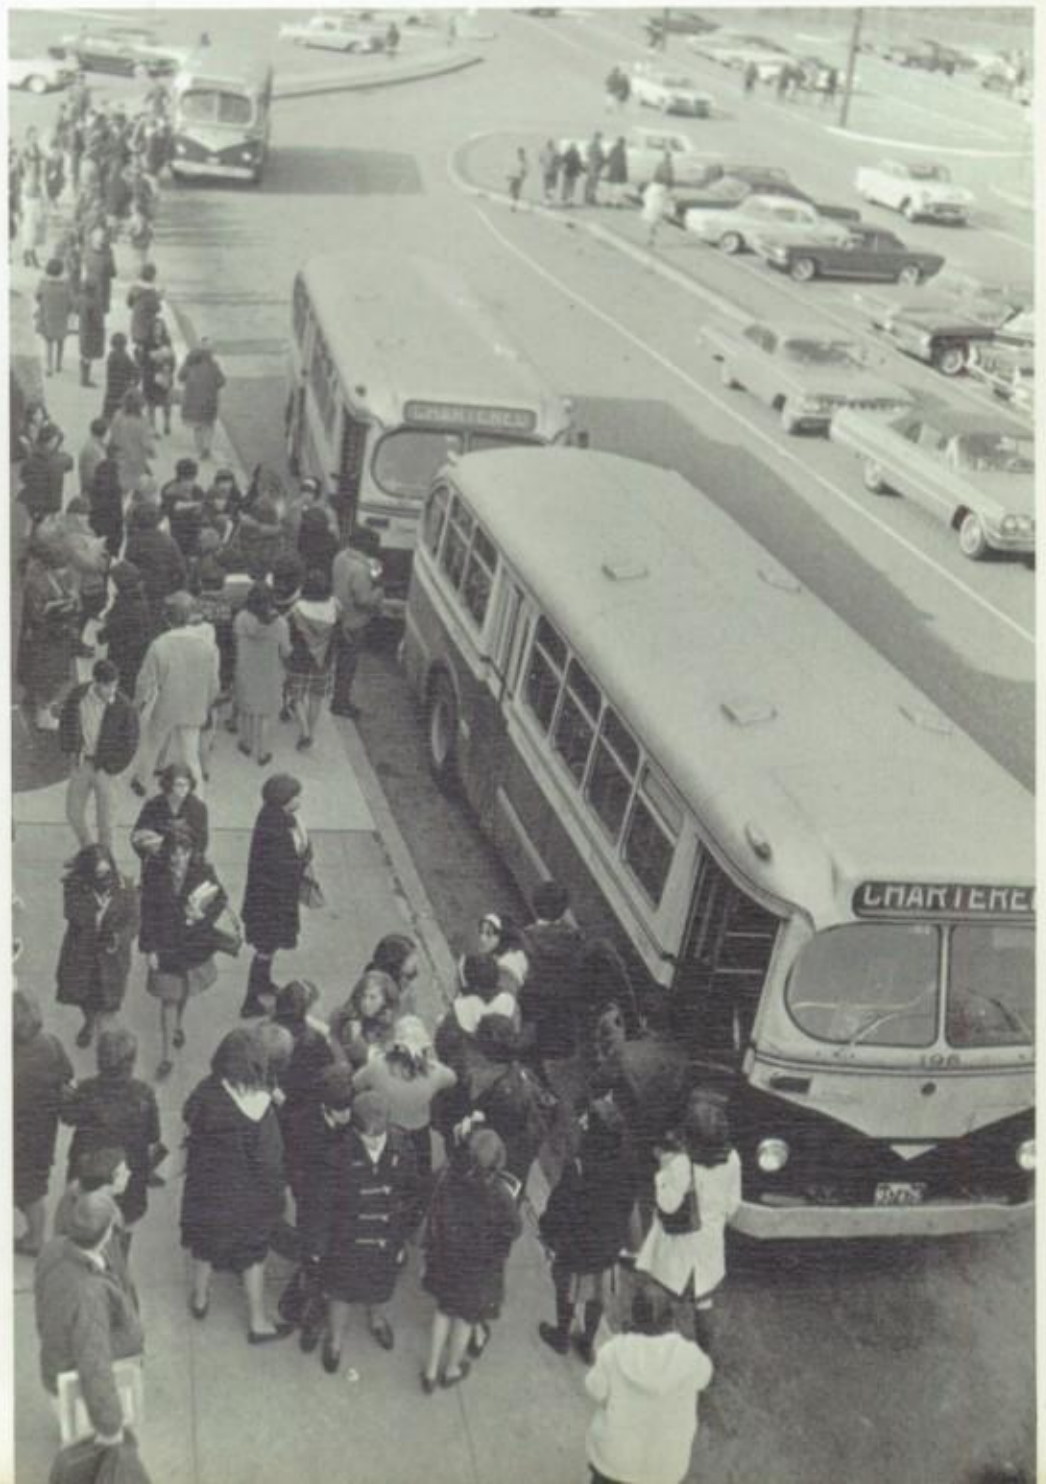

Whenever I'm a shining Knight,
I buckle on my armour tight;
And then I look about for things,
Like Rushings-Out, and Rescuings,
And savings from the Dragon's Lair,
And fighting all the Dragons there.
And sometimes when our fights begin,
I think I'll let the Dragons win . . .
And then I think perhaps I won't,
Because they're Dragons, and I don't.

I live not in myself, for I have become a portion of all that is around me.

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness.

Football

The articles in the Sunday papers grew longer each week as the Lions made football history for Newton South this fall. South's fans are not likely to forget the thrill of watching this impressive team rolling up victories: the hard hitting Lion line, the long passes, and the breakaway runs. But even more important, the coaches and players will always remember the great spirit and determination which made the 1965 Lions a great football team.

The Lions were an experienced team, with eight starters returning from the 1964 team. Coaches Winkler, Kojoyian, and Nathanson looked forward to a good season. Their hopes were more than justified on opening day when the Lions, led by Captain John Passarini, beat tough Fitchburg, holding them to a minus 25 yards rushing. The team's desire for a good season was evident, and with the seniors working hard and instilling spirit into the whole squad, the Lions produced successive victories over Cambridge Latin, Stoughton, and Amesbury.

In the hard fought Lexington game, Steve Cooper's great touchdown catch and Jose Compos' field goal clinched number five. Number six was Leominster, with the long runs of Captain Passarini sparking the fired-up Lions. Record breaking number seven was achieved at the expense of Rindge Tech, 28-0.

The streak was stopped in a vicious hard-hitting battle with Class A, Revere. Perhaps the key to the heart-breaking loss was the fact that South fumbled six times. South came out in front statistically in every department except the scoreboard. Head Coach Winkler said, "To go undefeated through a season you need the breaks, and today we just didn't get them."

But South rebounded on Thanksgiving Day, trouncing the Hingham Harbormen 35-0 in a jammed Dickinson Stadium. And the season was a great one: among other achievements, the 8-1 record was a new school mark, and John Passarini broke the season rushing record with 811 total yards and was named to the Boston Globe All-Scholastic first team.

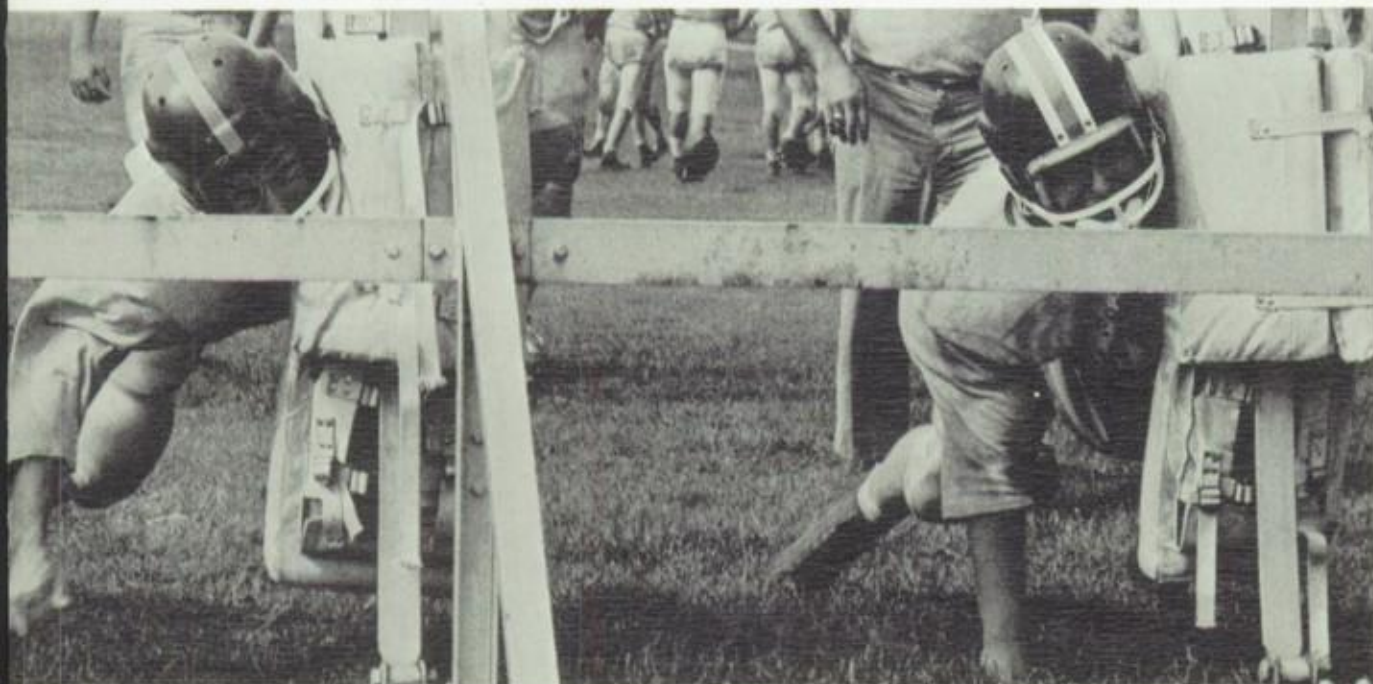

Although the 1965 Lions had many outstanding players, each win was really a team effort. The backfield, led by quarterback Steve Parnell and substitute Gordon Megrian, had hard-hitting speedy backs in Mike Nathanson, Joe Manfredi, John Passarini, Steve Cooper, and Captain-elect defensive back, Frank Rezzuti. Members of the great Lion line who opened up the holes this year were Denis Slawsby, Don Leporini, Peter Martin, Dick Aghababian, Bill Regan, Joe Durocher, Zeke Ross, and Don Smith. The defensive standouts included John Taglienti, Al Chesarone, Dave Sellinger, Ken Giles, Art Leventhal, 176 Steve Ward, Dick Hennessey, and Mike Laven.

Cross Country

Newton South's Cross Country fortunes reached a new low this year. Unable to get untracked after several early season losses, South's Harriers finished with a 1-7 record. The squad was crippled by the loss of Captain Andy Schroter with a pulled hamstring after only three meets. Senior Peter Orlov did a fine job filling in for Schroter, but the team never did get rolling.

One possible reason for the disappointing showing was the lack of real talent among the seniors. Coach Richard Geist remarked, "A runner will usually take a minute off his time each year . . . most of this year's seniors are running like sophomores."

The team's only victory came at the expense of the Revere cross-country team (not to be confused with football). Here junior Richard Ginsberg finished first overall with seniors Orlov and Ted Gross behind him.

Despite the bleak season, next year's prospects look good. Captain-elect Ginsberg, along with Jeff Davis, Henry Finch, Ted Brown, Mike Donnelly, and Dave Whitney should lead a much improved South squad.

Soccer

The Soccer season must be considered a disappointment, for although the sport finally began to receive student support, the record was a rather dismal 1-11. Despite standout jobs done by Captain Dwight Palmer, Richard Primack, Arthur Stroyman, Elliot Lobel, Andy Freeman, Phil DiGassbaro, Mike Baker, Mike York, and Goalies Rick Dana and Al Lewis, to mention a few, the team suffered from an overall lack of depth and experience. Next season's prospects look better with the return of several capable sophomores and juniors like Andy Schwartz, Ned Morse, Peter Haffermehl, and Barry Dichter. They expect to come up with more than this season's lone victory over Watertown, and the law of averages seems to be with them.

The Newton South basketball team had a disappointing season, finishing last in the ten team Suburban League. Their 2-16 league record coupled with three non-league defeats at the hands of Belmont, Boston Latin, and Lexington gave the Lions an overall record of two wins and nineteen losses.

The hoopsters had expected a more successful season after they had topped six of their seven pre-season opponents. However, a string of injuries and illnesses, and the team's inability to score vital baskets in the late stages of the game hindered the Lions all season.

Newton South could never quite put together all its talent at any one time. No fewer than eight different players were game high scorers. The Lion's main scoring threats came from the jump shots of Mike Baker and Alec Fineberg and the inside drives of Steve Cooper and Captain Elliot Lobel. Rick Dana and Don Stich handled the play-making efficiently. Steve Parnell, Ron Fox, and John Abramson were strong rebounders at both ends of the court. Jerry Horovitz, Andy Freeman, Arthur Perlis, Dwight Palmer, and Rick Ginsburg performed capably when called upon, proving that the Lions had more depth than it appeared.

Season highlights were the two wins over cross city rival Newton High. In the first meeting, Mike Baker's 19 points led them to a 64-48 victory. In the return match, South held off a fourth quarter Newton rally to post a 64-54 decision.

School records were set by Steve Cooper with 22 rebounds against Arlington, and by Rick Dana with ten assists against Cambridge Latin.

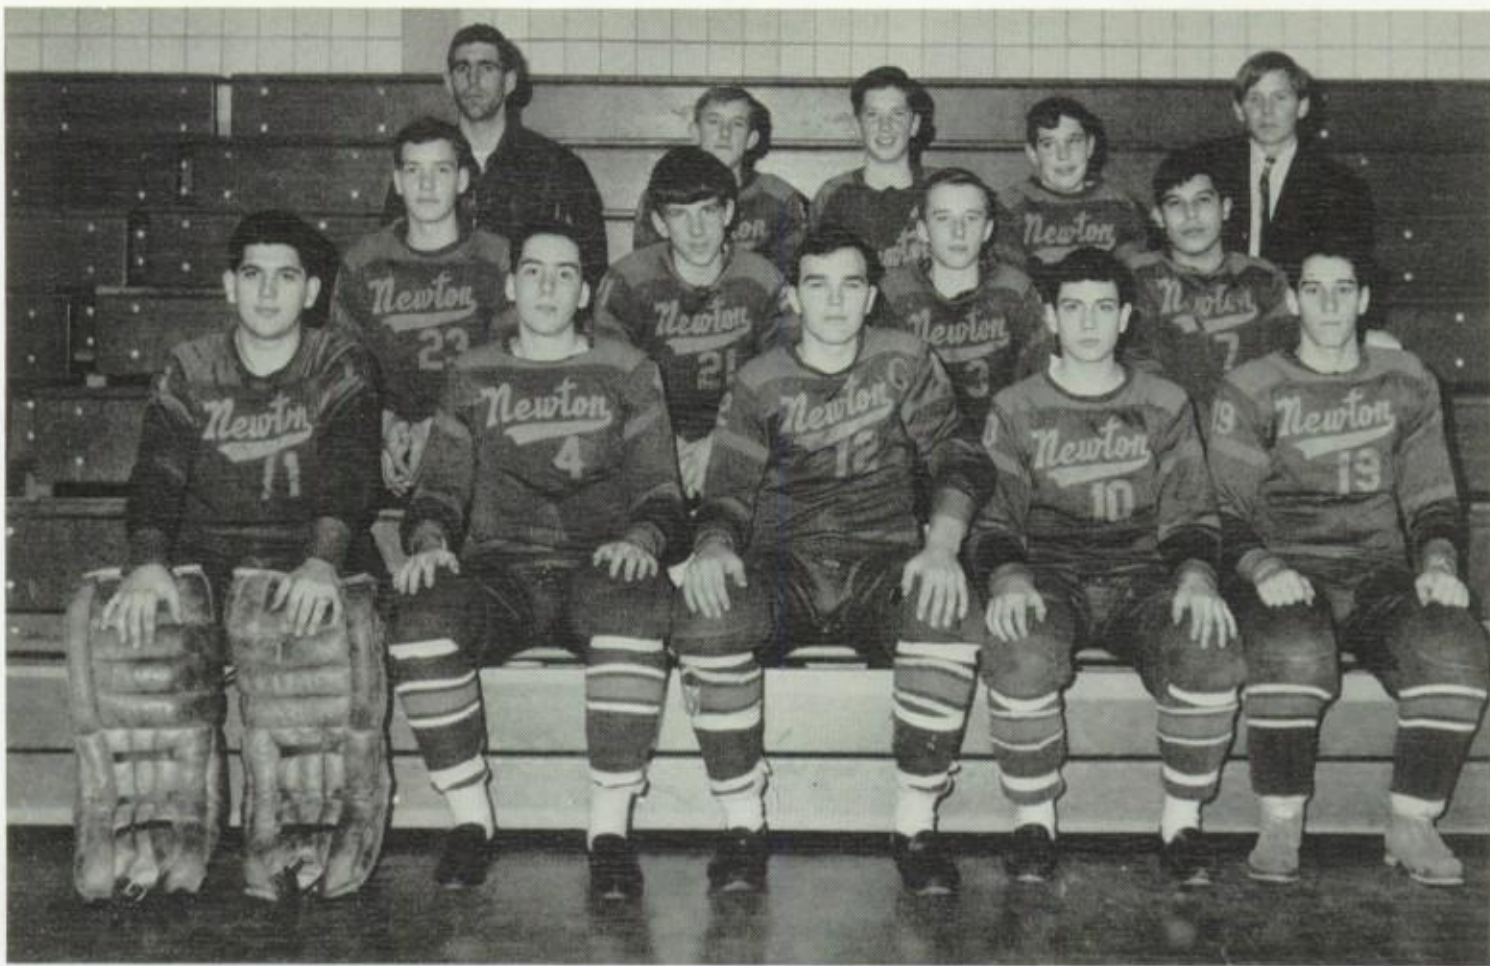

The return of Cooper and Ginsburg, joined by members of this year's strong Junior Varsity, should make next year's season more successful.

Hockey

Plagued by the problem of inexperience, the South hockey team skated to a 2-9-3 record during the 1965-66 season. Playing in the vastly improved Dual County League, the pucksters found the schedule to be too demanding during what was primarily a rebuilding year for the squad. The season opened with an 11-0 loss to a strong Weston club, followed by a tie with Bedford. The team then had a three game losing streak, with losses to Westwood, Lynnfield, and Marion. In the sixth game, the team chalked up their first win, 3-2, over Lincoln-Sudbury.

Finishing the first half of the season with a 4-3 loss to Wayland, Coach Jesdale shuffled his lines trying to provide more scoring punch. The shifts found Captain Bill Harwood at Center, senior Jack Epstein at Wing and junior Mark Holland on defense. The change seemed to help, as the Lions opened the second half of the season with a 6-4 non-league triumph over Rivers.

The team beat Lincoln-Sudbury, tied Bedford and Westwood, while losing to Lynnfield, Marion, Weston, and Wayland. Fine individual play was displayed throughout the season by Captain Bill Harwood, senior Wing Bob O'Connor, and Assistant Captain Frank Rezzuti.

The goal-tending chores were split between Assistant Captain Donnie Satter and senior Steve Mandile. Satter's best game was the 1-1 tie with Westwood, while Mandile's best was his fine 2-0 shutout against Lincoln-Sudbury.

Leading the team in scoring was Captain Bill Harwood with thirteen points. He was followed closely by Frank Rezzuti with 11 and Bob O'Connor with 10.

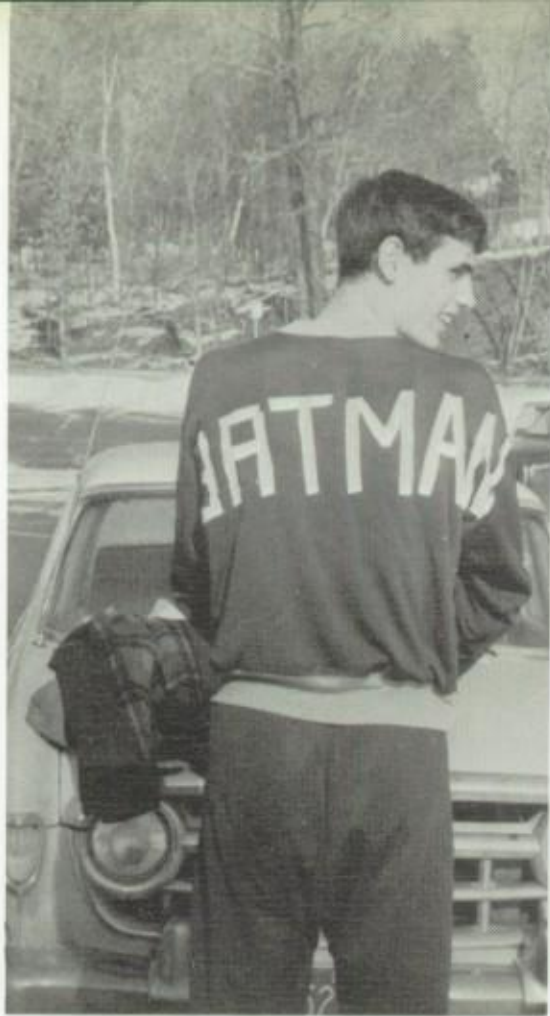

Others playing prominent roles on the year's team were sophomores Biff Wisner and Jack Dunnigan, and juniors Chet Robart, Mark Holland, Mark Sheehan, and Gil Esqueval.

Indoor Track

The 1966 Indoor Track Season began in defeat and ended in victory. From last year's record of seven wins and no losses, the team fell to a season of three wins and four defeats. After dropping the first three meets, the team bounced back to win all but one of the remaining four, losing only to league champion Randolph. Under the coaching of Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Ostrach, the Lions finished fourth in Division II of the Met Track League.

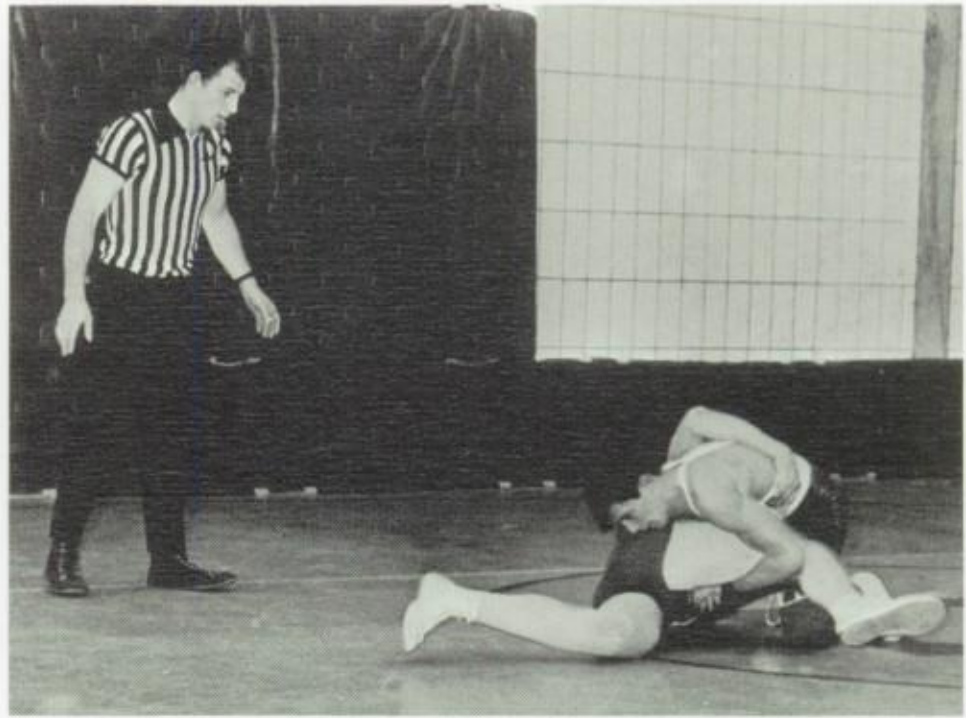

In the BAA Meet, Jeff Bergart took second place in the 300. Jeff also repeated as Class B 300 champion by breaking his old record with a new time of 33.2 seconds. In the same meet, Captain Dan Greenblatt placed third in the high hurdles and he and Ken Geffen tied (surprise, surprise) with five other boys in the high jump. The relay team of Bergart, Greenblatt, Owens, and Dolberg placed fourth. Overall, South placed sixth in the meet with a total of 10 $\frac{2}{7}$ points.

Always dependable for those top places in the dual meets were seniors Bob Owens, Dan Greenblatt, Ken Geffen, Jeff Bergart, and Steve Weisman. Other senior point winners were Joe Durocher, Bill Taylor, Alan Williams, and Andy Schroter.

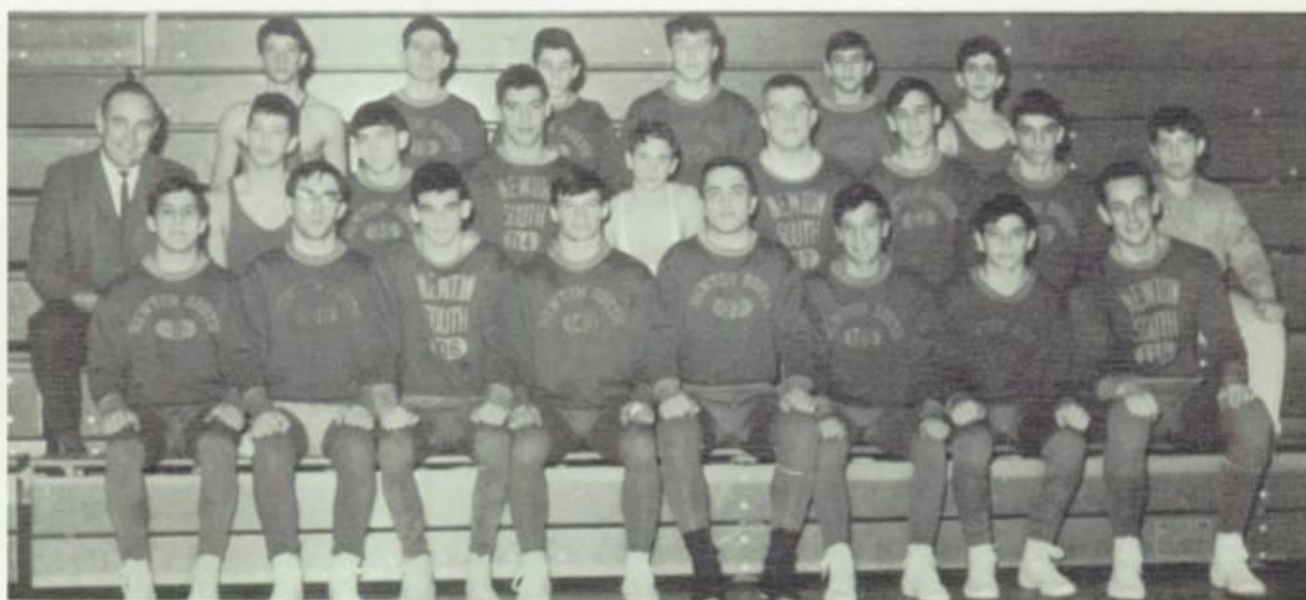

Next year's prospects look good as returning will be juniors Tom Thompson, Marvin Gans, Jim King, Henry Finch, and Mark Levanthal. Also returning will be sophomores Dave Whitney, Jeff Davis and Stan Dolberg, boys who have already established themselves as top runners.

Despite several outstanding performances by individual wrestlers, a general lack of depth at key positions led to a rather disappointing 5-5 season's record. This lack of depth became evident in the team's relatively weak sixth place finish in the Greater Boston Sectional Wrestling Tournament. The Sectionals, held at South this year, saw Captain Mike Nathanson win the 138 lb. class and be named the outstanding wrestler of the meet. In the same tournament, Captain John Passarini was runner-up in the 165 lb. class. In the State meet that followed, both boys placed third in their respective classes. Passarini capped his season by winning the 165 lb. title in the New England Championships, the highest any South wrestler has ever gone in a major event.

But despite the performances of Passarini and Nathanson, and the season efforts of such seniors as Mark Goff, Allan Mintz, Jerry Hanauer, John Moses, Steve Ward, and Norman Kaswell, the best the matmen could do was a respectable, if not very exciting, record.

Perhaps the most memorable event for the team this year was the match with powerful Westford Academy. After losing the close contest in the last match, the tired wrestlers and Coach Winkler were treated to a five hour bus ride as one of the many competent bus drivers headed his vehicle towards, not Newton, but the New Hampshire border.

Next year's team may have a hard time equalling some of the individual performances of this year, but there is already a strong nucleus led by Dave Sellinger, Ned MacDonald, and Sophomore Lou DiFazio.

THE MIRROR

Between the woods the afternoon
Is fallen in a golden swoon.
The sun looks down from quiet skies
To where a quiet water lies,
And silent trees stoop down to trees.
And there I saw a white swan make
Another white swan in the lake;
And, breast to breast, both motionless,
They waited for the wind's caress . . .
And all the water was at ease.

And he sits and thinks
of the things they know,
He and the Forest,
alone together —
The springs that come
and the summers that go,
Autumn dew on bracken
and heather,
The drip of the Forest
beneath the snow . . .

Where am I going? The clouds sail by,
Little ones, baby ones, over the sky.
Where am I going? The shadows pass,
Little ones, baby ones, over the grass.

If you were a cloud, and sailed up there,
You'd sail on water as blue as air,
And you'd see me here in the fields and say:
"Doesn't the sky look green today?"

If you were a bird, and lived on high,
You'd lean on the wind when the wind came by,
You'd say to the wind when it took you away:
"That's where I wanted to go today!"

Where am I going? I don't quite know.
What does it matter where people go?
Down to the wood where the blue-bells grow —
Anywhere, anywhere. I don't know.
